WELCOME!

"And what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also."

– 2 Timothy 2:2

This free guide, "Mentoring Made Easy", can help show you that you have what it takes to be a mentor and how to begin having a positive impact on the lives of boys and young men.

But you may be wondering if being a mentor too difficult or complicated. Or perhaps you are wondering if you're even qualified at all to be a mentor.

This guide is meant to help answer those and many other questions, and to introduce you to the easy to use Mentoring Out of the Box kits. We pray that you take a few moments to read further and to keep your mind and your heart open. God has shown he can do amazing things through the everyday man: Fishermen. Shepherds. Tax collectors. And, yes, even through you!

As you look back on your own life, you can see the many paths you have travelled. You climbed up and over many peaks leading towards new horizons. These successes taught you much. You also walked through dark valleys and stumbled and fell. But somehow you persevered and learned even more from these struggles. You gained in knowledge, skills and wisdom.

Throughout your life's path, other men walked beside you and made an investment into you. They taught you some life skills and knowledge of their interests in a masculine and loving way. They shared with you and taught the most important aspect of life: their faith, and were an example of biblical manhood.

Today you are at a point where you want to have an impact on those around you, to share what you've learned, and to pass the torch.

Mentoring Out of the Box is meant to help you to UNBOX YOUR LEGACY! We can help YOU to better prepare and equip today's boys to become the Next Generation of godly men our Church and world needs.

You have more than what it takes! What you can teach them will last them a lifetime and beyond!

THE ROLE OF A MENTOR!

A Mentor in a boy's life can be one of the most significant forces that affect the trajectory of his life. Beyond a boy's parents, good mentors make a difference in whether a boy will thrive or shipwreck his life.

A Mentor also understands that relationships are the conduit to building trust and passing on life skills to a boy. Mentoring and Discipleship are words that are often used interchangeably, and they do bear many similarities. The difference is that discipleship is mentoring that goes deeper and communicates not only life skills but seeks to impart a Biblical worldview. It is our hope that Mentoring Out of the Box will not only introduce you to mentoring but will be the catalyst that empowers you to begin to disciple your son and other boys.

Mentoring Out of the Box will help you to build relationships with your sons or with other boys, and you will help to point them to their Creator who seeks to be in relationship with them. We call this a desire to “Pass the Torch”. Unlike a runner passing a baton, as you light the torch of a boy, yours remains lit to pass on to others God places before you.

Boys need what you have to offer! They can learn from your skills and experiences. You can teach them to persevere and to have the courage to overcome obstacles. You can share your wisdom, your knowledge, and your skills. Whether it's your own sons, boys next door, or from a local church, boys need a man to guide them. By becoming a mentor, you are taking an active role in helping to equip them for godly living.

“These are mentors who had a tremendous impact, mentors who left a quiet legacy, who served without clamor or fanfare, who made a lasting difference.”

— John Sowers

THE NEEDS OF BOYS!

Boys have needs as they grow. Boys need the Lord, the Word, and the Church. But they also need MEN in their lives. They need MEN who will accept them and speak words of affirmation and encouragement. MEN who will help them on their path to manhood. MEN to listen to what they have on their heart. And they need MEN to set an example of Biblical Manhood.

For boys without a dad in the home, these needs are more acute. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, one in three children in America live in biological father absent homes. If you include dads with addictions, mental illness, or dads who are not living lives worthy of emulation, more than half the boys you know are desperately in need of a man like you to mentor them.

Whether it's your own son, your neighbor's boys, or from your church or community, they need you. Think about how a small investment of your knowledge, skills, experience, and wisdom could impact even one boy. Imagine the impact of your leadership and godly love. As God's Word commands us as men,

“Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.” — Deut. 6:4-7

“We need strong men to build into the lives of our younger men and boys...just ordinary, everyday men who care enough to invest themselves – their time, attention, and wisdom – in the lives of others.”

— Tony Dungy

UNBOX YOUR LEGACY!

Pass on Your Faith.

Mentoring Out of the Box

helps you to influence your son or another boy than to pass on your faith and demonstrate what it means to be a godly man! You do this not only by what you say but by how you live your life in front of him. Ultimately, this is the most important ideal to pass on, as we desire not to merely build men, but to build godly men.

Pass on Your Life. Mentoring Out of the Box helps YOU to pass on the skills you've acquired in your life and to help boys develop mentally, physically, socially, and spiritually! And Mentoring Out of the Box empowers men to use their own gifts, talents, and experience as a part of the mentoring process.

Pass on Your LEGACY. Men want to excel and leave a positive legacy. We know how vital it is to pass on what we have learned so that the next generation is better equipped and prepared for living.

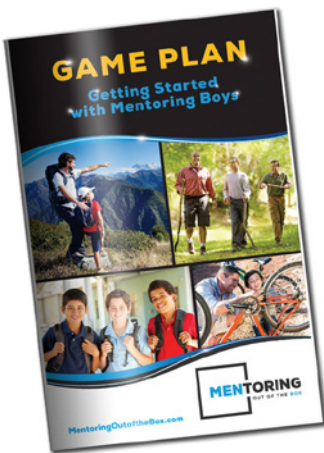

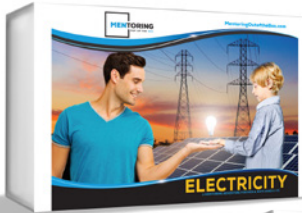

“Every man is called to be a model for, and to lead, the next generation with honor, wisdom and compassion.”

— Shaun Blakeney and Marcus Brotherton
